

English - Czech dictionary for Mother centers

In the Czech language there are many possibilities to make a diminutive form of a word, to say, that something is small or to express love or other emotions. Nouns are declined, verbs are conjugated, therefore is the Czech language very difficult, but nice.

mother , mum, mummi, mamma	matka , máma, maminka, mamka, mamča, maminečka, mamulinka
father , dad, daddy	otec , táta, tatínek, taťulda, taťulínek
child – children	dítě , dětátko – děti , dětičky
baby	miminko , miminečko
brother	bratr , bratříček
sister	sestra , sestřička
grandmother , grandma, granny	babička , babi, bábinka
grandfather , grandpa	děda , dědeček, dědoušek
Welcome!	Vítejte!
How are you doing?	Jak se máš? (said to a familiar person) Jak se máte? (formal, with respect)
I am fine.	Mám se dobře.
Would you like some coffee?	Dáš si kávu? (said to a familiar person) Dáte si kávu? (formal, with respect)
Yes pleas. No, thank you.	Ano, ráda. (a woman) Ano, rád. (a man). Ne, děkuji.
Join us.	Přidej se (to 1 person), přidejte se (to more person)
Play. Play with me.	hrát si. Hraj si se mnou.
Nice to meet you again.	Rád tě zase vidím. (said by a man to 1 person) Ráda tě zase vidím. (said by a woman to 1 person). Rádi vás zase vidíme. (said by, more man and woman to more person).
sing, draw, dance, exercise, talk, be together	zpívat, malovat, tančit, cvičit, povídat si, být spolu
one, two, three, for, five, six, seven, eight, nine, ten	jeden, dva, tři, čtyři, pět, šest, sedm, osm, devět, deset